

NATURALLY LIBERATING

Whatever YOU Meet

PUBLIC TALK

Finding Wisdom IN Compassion: THE Buddhist Path

Location: Columbus Performing Arts Center
549 Franklin Ave. Columbus, OH 43215

According to Buddha's teaching on the Four Noble Truths, suffering is part of life; it has a cause; it has a solution; and there is a path that leads to the end of suffering. When the causes of suffering are discussed, selfishness, or ego-clinging, emerges as a root cause of the suffering we encounter.

But how can we uproot ego-clinging? In this talk, Khenpo Rinpoche will describe the role of love and compassion (Relative Bodhicitta) and wisdom (Ultimate Bodhicitta) as steps on the path to liberation.

Cost

CKTC Members in good standing:

$95/all sessions
including the public talk.

Non-Members:

$110/all sessions
including the public talk.

Note: Fees cover all teaching events, except Empowerment.

Empowerment:

$25 for CKTC members.
$35 for non-members.

Note: The Empowerment requires attendees to have taken refuge.

Refuge Ceremony:

There is no fee for the Refuge Ceremony.

Schedule

PUBLIC TALK:

Friday, Sept 23, 7:30pm

WEEKEND SEMINAR PT. I:

Saturday, Sept 24

Session 1: 10:30am to Noon

Session 2: 3pm to 4:30pm

Refuge Ceremony and Amitayus

Empowerment: 7pm to 9pm

WEEKEND SEMINAR PT. II:

Sunday, Sept 25

Session 3: 10:30am to Noon

KTD FUNDRAISING LUNCH:

NOON TO 2PM

Session 4: 3pm to 4:30pm

WEEKEND TEACHING

Naturally Liberating Whatever You Meet: Instructions TO Guide You ON THE Profound Path

Location: Columbus Karma Thegsum Chöling

231 S. Grubb St., Columbus, Ohio 43215 • www.columbusktc.org

In 1958, Communist armies invaded Kham in Tibet, destroying monasteries and imprisoning monks. The previous summer, Khenpo Gangshar foresaw that the difficulties in Tibet were going to escalate. To help dharma practitioners in Tibet progress rapidly on the path so they could meet these challenges skillfully, he gave this teaching on Naturally Liberating Whatever You Meet. Thrangu Rinpoche, Chogyam Trungpa Rinpoche, and Khenpo Karthar Rinpoche received this profound cycle of teachings, which describe how to progress rapidly by engaging with practice whatever happens to you. It includes advice on the wisdom of emotions, and taking the bardo state as well as sleep as the path.

Only a few people who actually received this teaching remain alive; it is a rare opportunity for us to host Khenpo Karthar Rinpoche, who received this teaching, and who can transmit to us the wisdom of being able to work with whatever comes to us in life.

About Khenpo Karthar Rinpoche

Khenpo Karthar Rinpoche was born in 1924 in Rabshi, Kham, east Tibet. A master of Tibetan Buddhism, Rinpoche has been a monk since the age of twelve, and since 1976 has devotedly served His Holiness the Gyalwang Karmapa by spreading the authentic teachings of the Karma Kagyu lineage in America. He serves as abbot of Karma Triyana Dharmachakra monastery – the North American seat of His Holiness the Seventeenth Gyalwang Karmapa, Ogyen Drodul Trinley Dorje.

Registration

Make check payable to “Columbus KTC” and return by mail to *Columbus

KTC, 231 S. Grubb St., Columbus, OH 43215* or send PayPal funds to paypal@columbusktc.org.

Registration fees help to cover the cost of teaching expenses such as airfare
and translation fees;
however, no one will be turned away due to lack of funds. Please contact director@columbusktc.org to request financial assistance.